

Available position as Sports Manager

Short description

Hammer Turn is a gymnastics club having more than 1000 members, mostly kids. Hammer Turn is located in Lørenskog., 15 minutes from Oslo city center. We moved into a new gymnastics sports hall in fall 2016 and have classes for parents- and toddlers, classes for general gymnastics preschool, kid and youth, woman's and men's artistic gymnastics, team gym and and rhythmic gymnastics.

As a part of strengthening the administration and further developing the club, our coaches and gymnasts, we are looking for a sports manager.

The employment can be time limited or permanent and can be combined with other tasks in the club.

Tasks

- Sports manager will be the link between the general manager and headcoaches/coaches/athletes/guardians
- Cooperate with head coaches
- Be a member of the sporting committee and report to the general manager
- Shape and follow up coach staff
- Contribute to further developing the club
- Contribute to planning and setting up half-year / full-year plans, as well as preparing budget in cooperation with the head coaches.

Qualifications

- The candidate should have experience from organized sports, preferably high level
- Management experience, communicate with clarity and be confident in this role
- Formal education for the position
- Knowledge about gymnastics for women, men or team-gym is an advantage but not a requirement.
- Good skills in cooperation
- The candidate must be able to submit a certificate of good conduct issued by the police
- The candidate must be able to speak a Scandinavian language or speak English good

Personal characteristics

We are looking for a person that are positive, entrepreneurial and committed to their work. You must have good skills in cooperation and be enjoy working in teams. Work will be hectic and demanding, so you must enjoy a high level of activity.

Terms

Terms and accession by appointment. The work is mainly done on the afternoon/evening, some daytime/projects and weekend work must be expected.

We offer

We offer an exciting and challenging workday. We can promise you challenging work tasks in a nice environment and with pleasant colleagues.

If you want to participate in further developing the club, please contact

Sports manager Tom Solbakken: e-mail: tosolb@icloud.com , phone +47 99 40 91 80 or

General manager: May Gunn Madsen, e-mail: dagligleder@hammerturn.no phone +47 99 56 02 51.